

QUALITY POLICY

Within the context of the organisation the management of Toray Textiles Europe Limited has established, implemented and will continuously improve a quality management system compliant with the ISO9001 : 2015 standard, which considers the relevant risks and opportunities to the business, and which has the necessary quality objectives and controls to support its strategic direction and ability to consistently manufacture textile to all agreed product standards.